Introduction to the assignment

Stockholm is a city shaped by water, history, and timeless architecture. Built across fourteen islands where Lake Mälaren meets the Baltic Sea, the city is defined by its sparkling waterways and scenic shorelines. At its heart lies the old town, Gamla Stan, one of Europe's best preserved medieval quarters, with winding cobblestone streets, historic squares, and centuries old buildings that reflect Stockholm's rich past. Across the city, elegant architecture - from royal palaces and historic churches to modern design landmarks - tells the story of a place where heritage and innovation live side by side.

Together, these elements create a vibrant and atmospheric capital with a uniquely Nordic character which contribute to an inspiring atmosphere for the NMO meeting and the competition. Some of these signature elements have inspired the image transfer part of the assignment and wallpaper choices offered in the competition.

The assignment consists of painting a door, painting of woodwork, wallpaper hanging, decoration, stenciling/image transfer and free painting technique. The competitors will have the opportunity to put their own stamp on their respective competition booth using different techniques, color schemes and a choice of wallpaper. Combined with their decorative painting, all pieces will contribute to an overall harmony which the judges will weigh into the final score.

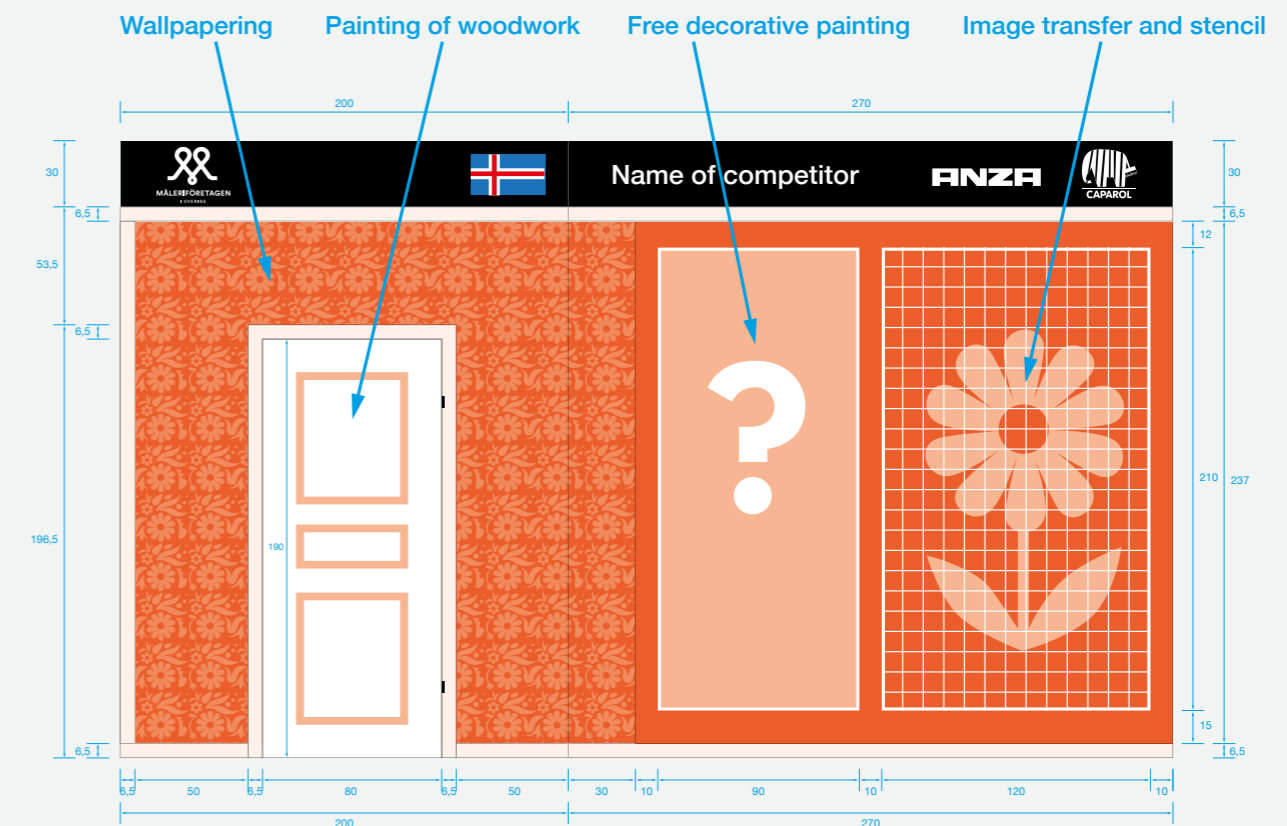

We will supply the paint from the competition sponsor, Caparol. Competitors decide most colors themselves, and competitors will be judged for their color scheme.

Time available for the assignment will be 20 hours, not including lunch and coffee breaks. Breaks will be communicated with competitors and coaches later.

Illustration of competition booth and layout

Each competitor will be provided with a competition booth. Each booth has three walls with surfaces made of drywall which will be filled, pre-coated and ready for competition. Contestants will have the opportunity to examine all surfaces prior to competition start. The trims and moldings will be primed only. Any faults, irregularities or damage are to be reported immediately. The floor will be protected by millboard.

*Measurements and details in the assignments may be adjusted before the competition due to circumstances beyond our control. The participants will be informed if such alterations should occur.

The Swedish working environment legislation must be respected.

Paint is sponsored by Caparol. Please note that all materials are to be specified by the product name, quantity and NCS-code in the requirement form. Competitors may bring their own materials providing they hide other brands since the competition will be photographed and videoed.
